INCULPATORY

Meaning: Inculpatory refers to evidence or statements that imply or suggest someone's guilt in a crime.

1. The lawyer presented inculpatory evidence that cast doubt on the defendant's alibi.
2. Inculpatory statements made during the interrogation were pivotal in securing a conviction.
3. The prosecution relied heavily on inculpatory documents found in the defendant's possession.
4. Witness testimonies provided inculpatory details that linked the suspect to the crime scene.
5. Despite the inculpatory nature of the video footage, the defense argued it was taken out of context.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inculpatory