

INCULTIVATION

Meaning: Incultivation is the process of deliberately nurturing or developing agricultural practices or ecosystems to promote growth and productivity.

1. The incultivation of new agricultural practices can significantly enhance crop yields.
2. In the context of environmental science, incultivation refers to the deliberate nurturing of ecosystems.
3. The artist's work reflects the incultivation of cultural traditions within a modern framework.
4. Communities often engage in the incultivation of their heritage to preserve it for future generations.
5. Incultivation is essential for fostering a deeper understanding of local flora and fauna.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incultivation>