

INCURABLE

Meaning: Incurable: (adjective) referring to a medical condition or disease that cannot be cured or effectively treated.

1. The doctor explained that her condition was considered incurable, leaving the family in shock.
2. Despite the advances in medical science, some diseases remain incurable and pose significant challenges.
3. The incurable nature of his illness forced him to rethink his priorities and focus on what truly mattered.
4. Many people with incurable diseases find solace in support groups that offer understanding and compassion.
5. The researchers are working tirelessly to find a cure for what is currently deemed an incurable condition.
6. The doctor explained that the disease was incurable, leaving the family devastated.
7. Despite their best efforts, researchers have yet to find a treatment for this incurable condition.
8. She faced her diagnosis with courage, knowing that her illness was deemed incurable.
9. Many believe that with enough funding, even the most challenging incurable diseases can eventually be tackled.
10. The incurable nature of his illness pushed him to focus on living life to the fullest.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incurable>