

INDENTMENT

Meaning: Indentment refers to the act or effect of creating a space or indentation at the beginning of a line of text to improve clarity or aesthetics in written documents.

1. The indentment of the text helped to clarify the structure of the document.
2. In calligraphy, proper indentment can significantly enhance the overall aesthetic of the piece.
3. The indentment in the manuscript indicated a new paragraph, making it easier to follow the author's thoughts.
4. He was instructed to pay attention to the indentment of each line when formatting his essay.
5. The indentment was carefully designed to create a visually appealing layout for the presentation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indentment>