

INDEPOSABLE

Meaning: Indeposable: unable to be replaced or discarded due to unique value or significance.

1. The artist's unique style made her paintings seem indeposable, capturing the essence of emotion in every brushstroke.
2. His collection of rare stamps was considered indeposable, valued not only for its rarity but also for its historical significance.
3. In the world of finance, certain assets are deemed indeposable due to their intrinsic value and potential for appreciation.
4. The indeposable nature of the artifacts in the museum ensured that they would be preserved for future generations to appreciate.
5. Despite the overwhelming offers, she recognized that her grandmother's heirloom was indeposable and could never be replaced.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indeposable>