

INDEX

Meaning: INDEX (noun): A systematic list or arrangement of items, such as books or keywords, that facilitates easy retrieval and reference.

1. The library's catalog is organized by an index, making it easy to find books.
2. To improve search efficiency, the database uses a comprehensive index of keywords.
3. An index at the back of the textbook helps students locate important topics quickly.
4. The stock market index rose sharply after the announcement of better-than-expected earnings.
5. In mathematics, an index can refer to the exponent of a number in a power expression.
6. The library's new digital index makes it much easier to locate rare books.
7. She decided to index her collection of vintage postcards for better organization.
8. The financial report included an index that highlighted key performance indicators.
9. During the presentation, he referred to the index to support his claims about market trends.
10. Researchers often rely on the index of a journal to find relevant articles quickly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/index>