INDICATIVELY

Meaning: In a manner that suggests or points to something, often implying a particular meaning or significance.

1. The weather forecast suggests that it will rain indicatively in the afternoon.
2. Her tone was indicatively serious, hinting at the importance of the matter.
3. The increasing sales figures indicate indicatively that the new strategy is working.
4. During the interview, he spoke indicatively about his previous accomplishments.
5. The artist's use of color in the painting was indicatively vibrant and full of life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indicatively