

INDIFFERENCY

Meaning: Indifferency refers to a lack of interest, concern, or enthusiasm about something.

1. Her indifferency towards the outcome of the project surprised her colleagues.
2. The teacher noted a troubling indifferency in the students' responses to the assignment.
3. In the face of such adversity, his indifferency was both puzzling and concerning.
4. Despite the urgency of the situation, she maintained an unsettling indifferency.
5. The community's indifferency to the environmental issues prompted activists to organize a rally.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indifferency>