

INDIFFERENT

Meaning: Indifferent: having no particular interest or concern; apathetic.

1. Her indifferent attitude towards the project surprised her colleagues.
2. Despite the heated debate, he remained indifferent to the opinions of others.
3. The artist's indifferent response to criticism hinted at his confidence in his work.
4. Many voters felt indifferent about the candidates, leading to low turnout on election day.
5. She watched the drama unfold with an indifferent expression, as if it were all a show.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indifferent>