

INDIFFERENTISM

Meaning: Indifferentism is the attitude or belief characterized by a lack of concern or interest in important issues, particularly regarding moral, social, or philosophical matters.

1. Indifferentism often leads to a lack of engagement in important social issues.
2. The philosopher argued that indifferentism undermines the quest for truth and purpose.
3. In a world filled with diverse beliefs, indifferentism can promote a sense of apathy among individuals.
4. Many critics believe that indifferentism erodes the values that bind communities together.
5. The rising tide of indifferentism poses a challenge for activists trying to inspire change.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indifferentism>