

INDIFFERENTIST

Meaning: Indifferentist: a person who remains neutral or apathetic, especially regarding important issues or conflicts.

1. The indifferentist in the group often avoided taking a stand on the pressing issues of the day.
2. Despite the heated debate, he remained an indifferentist, unwilling to engage in the conflict.
3. Her indifferentist perspective led her to believe that all opinions were equally valid, regardless of their merit.
4. In a world filled with passionate advocates, the indifferentist's calm demeanor stood out starkly.
5. Critics accused him of being an indifferentist, claiming he lacked the conviction to support any cause wholeheartedly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indifferentist>