

INDIGESTIBLE

Meaning: Indigestible refers to something that is difficult to understand or process mentally, or food that is too rich or heavy for the stomach to properly digest.

1. The complex theory was so intricate that it felt almost indigestible to most of the students.
2. After a hearty meal, he found the dessert too rich and indigestible for his stomach.
3. The lengthy report was filled with jargon that made it indigestible for the average reader.
4. Despite its rich flavor, the dish was indigestible due to its heavy use of spices.
5. Her indigestible remarks left the audience in stunned silence, unable to respond.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indigestible>