

INDISCERNIBLE

Meaning: Indiscernible: impossible to perceive or distinguish clearly; not able to be seen or recognized.

1. The differences between the two paintings were so subtle that they were almost indiscernible.
2. As the fog rolled in, the outline of the distant mountains became indiscernible against the sky.
3. The sound of the music was indiscernible from the chatter of the crowd at the busy café.
4. Her expression was so carefully composed that any sign of her true feelings was indiscernible.
5. In the dim light, the details on the ancient manuscript were nearly indiscernible to the naked eye.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indiscernible>