

INDISTINCT

Meaning: Indistinct refers to something that is not clearly defined or perceived, often blending into surrounding elements or lacking sharpness.

1. The voices in the crowded room were indistinct, merging into a low hum.
2. As she squinted at the horizon, the mountains appeared indistinct against the cloudy sky.
3. His memories of that summer were faint and indistinct, like a dream slowly fading away.
4. The artist chose to create an indistinct image, leaving much to the viewer's interpretation.
5. In the fog, the shapes of the trees became indistinct, blurring the line between reality and illusion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indistinct>