

INDISTINCTIBLE

Meaning: Indistinctible refers to something that cannot be clearly distinguished or differentiated, often due to blending or lack of clarity.

1. The lines between reality and imagination often become indistinctible in dreams.
2. In the foggy landscape, the shapes of the trees appeared indistinctible, blending into one another.
3. Her emotions were indistinctible, a mix of joy and sadness that left her feeling confused.
4. The artist's style was so unique that it made the boundaries between genres indistinctible.
5. In the hush of the library, the whispers became indistinctible, merging into a soothing background murmur.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indistinctible>