

INDIVIDUATION

Meaning: Individuation is the psychological process by which an individual develops a distinct personality and self-identity, distinguishing themselves from others.

1. Individuation is a crucial process in psychological development, allowing one to differentiate from others.
2. The concept of individuation often involves a journey towards self-discovery and personal identity.
3. Carl Jung emphasized individuation as essential for achieving a balanced and integrated self.
4. In art, individuation can be seen in how each artist expresses their unique perspective and style.
5. The individuation of characters in the novel adds depth to the overall narrative and themes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/individuation>