

INDOIN

Meaning: Indoin (verb): to enhance or embellish something creatively or to immerse oneself in an enjoyable activity.

1. The children decided to indoin their art project with bright colors and glitter.
2. After a long day, she loved to indoin herself in her favorite book and escape reality.
3. They planned to indoin the party decorations with handmade crafts and personal touches.
4. To celebrate their friendship, they chose to indoin their gifts with heartfelt notes.
5. On rainy days, he preferred to indoin his time with movies and warm cups of tea.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indoin>