

INDORSABLE

Meaning: Indorsable refers to a document or instrument, such as a note or proposal, that is capable of being endorsed or transferred to another party, typically indicating approval or support.

1. The proposal was deemed indorsable by the committee, reflecting its unanimous support.
2. In the world of finance, an indorsable note allows for easy transfer of ownership.
3. Her indorsable talents in negotiation made her an invaluable asset to the team.
4. The contract contained an indorsable clause that ensured the rights could be transferred.
5. He felt confident in his indorsable opinion on the matter, knowing it was backed by solid evidence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indorsable>