

INDORSEMENT

Meaning: Endorsement: a public declaration of support or approval for a product, service, or individual, often involving a financial agreement.

1. The athlete received a lucrative endorsement deal that boosted her career.
2. His endorsement of the new product significantly increased consumer interest.
3. The politician's endorsement from a well-known celebrity swayed many voters.
4. She was thrilled to have her artwork featured in a major magazine's endorsement.
5. The company's endorsement by a reputable organization enhanced its credibility.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indorsement>