

INDUCER

Meaning: Inducer: a substance or agent that stimulates or enhances a biological process, such as the synthesis of compounds or the expression of genes.

1. The researcher developed an inducer to enhance the synthesis of the desired compound.
2. In cellular biology, an inducer can trigger the expression of specific genes under certain conditions.
3. The pharmaceutical company is testing a new inducer that promises to improve enzyme activity in patients.
4. He acted as an inducer of change within the organization, inspiring others to embrace innovation.
5. In the experiment, the presence of the inducer significantly increased the rate of reaction observed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inducer>