

INDUCIBLE

Meaning: Inducible refers to a characteristic or response that can be triggered or activated under specific conditions or stimuli.

1. The concept of inducible immunity plays a crucial role in vaccine development.
2. Certain genes are inducible under stress conditions, allowing organisms to adapt to their environment.
3. The researchers discovered that the enzyme was inducible by specific chemical signals in the cell.
4. In this experiment, the bacteria demonstrated an inducible response to changes in temperature.
5. Her interest in the subject was inducible, sparked by a captivating lecture she attended.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inducible>