

INDULGENT

Meaning: Indulgent: characterized by a tendency to give in to one's desires or to allow others to enjoy excessive comforts or luxuries.

1. The indulgent chef prepared a feast that delighted all the guests.
2. Her indulgent nature often led her to spoil her children with extravagant gifts.
3. On weekends, he allowed himself to be indulgent, enjoying long breakfasts and lazy afternoons.
4. The indulgent chocolate cake was the highlight of the birthday celebration.
5. They took an indulgent vacation at a luxury resort, where every desire was catered to.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indulgent>