

INDULGER

Meaning: Indulger (noun): a person who indulges in a particular pleasure or luxury, especially one related to food or drink.

1. The indulgent nature of the chocolatier made him a notorious indulger among dessert lovers.
2. As an indulger of fine wines, she always sought out the best vineyards during her travels.
3. He considered himself an indulger of luxury, often treating himself to the finest things in life.
4. In a world of strict diets and restrictions, she refused to be labeled an indulger and embraced moderation instead.
5. The film depicted a character who was an indulger of all things extravagant, often leading to humorous consequences.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/indulger>