

INDUPLICATIVE

Meaning: Induplicative refers to a quality or characteristic of languages or functions that prevents repetition or duplication in their structure or outputs.

1. The concept of induplicative languages fascinates linguists due to their unique structure.
2. In mathematics, an induplicative function exhibits properties that prevent repetition in its outputs.
3. The artist's induplicative style ensures that each piece maintains its originality and distinctiveness.
4. Philosophers often debate whether true induplicative experiences can exist within human perception.
5. The computer algorithm was designed to generate induplicative sequences for enhanced data security.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/induplicative>