

INDUSTRIAL

Meaning: Relating to or characterized by the manufacturing and production of goods, particularly in factories or large-scale operations.

1. The industrial landscape of the region has transformed dramatically over the past decade.
2. Many cities are implementing green initiatives to reduce the environmental impact of industrial activities.
3. The industrial revolution marked a significant turning point in human history and economic development.
4. Advancements in technology are shaping the future of industrial automation and efficiency.
5. She pursued a career in industrial design, combining creativity with practical engineering solutions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/industrial>