

INEBRIANT

Meaning: Inebriant: causing intoxication or a state of exhilaration, often associated with the effects of alcohol.

1. The inebriant effects of the wine were evident as the party grew livelier.
2. His inebriant laughter filled the room, spreading joy to everyone around.
3. After a few inebriant cocktails, she found it hard to keep her balance.
4. The novel captures the inebriant allure of the city nightlife, drawing readers into its vibrant atmosphere.
5. He often reminisced about the inebriant evenings spent with friends, lost in conversation and laughter.
6. The inebriant effects of the strong brew were evident in the laughter that filled the room.
7. He often found himself drawn to the inebriant allure of the city's nightlife.
8. As the evening wore on, the inebriant atmosphere made it hard to remember the worries of the day.
9. Her inebriant charm captivated everyone at the party, as she danced effortlessly under the lights.
10. They enjoyed the inebriant taste of the wine, savoring each sip as they toasted to friendship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inebriant>