

INEFFECTUAL

Meaning: Ineffectual: lacking the ability or effectiveness to produce desired results or outcomes.

1. His attempts to motivate the team were ultimately ineffectual, as their morale continued to decline.
2. The ineffectual response from management left employees feeling undervalued and frustrated.
3. Despite her best efforts, she found her arguments to be ineffectual in swaying the committee's decision.
4. The new policy was deemed ineffectual, failing to address the core issues that plagued the organization.
5. He realized that his attempts at persuasion were ineffectual in changing her mind about the project.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ineffectual>