

INEFFICACIOUSLY

Meaning: Inefficaciously: in a manner that is ineffective or fails to produce the desired result.

1. The new policy was implemented inefficaciously, leading to widespread confusion among employees.
2. Despite their best efforts, the team worked inefficaciously, resulting in missed deadlines and unachieved goals.
3. She realized that her attempts to persuade him were inefficaciously met with indifference.
4. The project suffered inefficaciously from a lack of clear direction and communication.
5. In the meeting, the manager noted how inefficaciously the resources had been allocated, hindering progress.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inefficaciously>