

INELIGIBILITY

Meaning: Ineligibility refers to the condition of being unable to qualify or be considered for something, such as a scholarship or program, due to specific criteria or requirements.

1. Her ineligibility for the scholarship was disappointing, but she remained hopeful for future opportunities.
2. The committee's decision was based on strict criteria, resulting in her ineligibility for the program.
3. He felt frustrated by his ineligibility to vote due to a recent change in residency requirements.
4. The new regulations clarified the ineligibility of certain applicants, ensuring a fair selection process.
5. Despite her talents, her ineligibility for the competition was a setback she had to overcome.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ineligibility>