

INELOQUENT

Meaning: Ineloquent: lacking the ability to express oneself clearly and effectively in speech or writing.

1. His ineloquent speech failed to inspire the audience during the important presentation.
2. Despite her ineloquent attempts to express her feelings, he could sense the depth of her emotions.
3. The politician's ineloquent response to the question left many voters feeling disillusioned.
4. She struggled with ineloquent phrasing, often finding it difficult to convey her thoughts clearly.
5. Ineloquent as his words were, they carried a sincerity that resonated with those who listened.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ineloquent>