

INERRABLE

Meaning: Inerrable: incapable of making mistakes or being wrong; infallible.

1. The philosopher argued that the principles of logic are inerrable and form the foundation of rational thought.
2. In many religious traditions, the sacred texts are considered inerrable, conveying absolute truths to their followers.
3. Despite numerous interpretations, the scientist maintained that the laws of nature are inerrable and universally applicable.
4. She believed that her moral compass was inerrable, guiding her decisions without fail.
5. Inerrable reasoning is crucial in mathematics, where each theorem builds upon a logically sound foundation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inerrable>