

INERRABLENESS

Meaning: Inerrableness refers to the quality of being free from error or mistakes, particularly in the context of texts or writings.

1. The inerrableness of the ancient texts has been a topic of debate among scholars for centuries.
2. Many believers hold a strong conviction in the inerrableness of their religious scriptures.
3. The philosopher argued that the inerrableness attributed to a doctrine can lead to dogmatism.
4. Inerrableness is often viewed as a fundamental characteristic of divine revelation in various faiths.
5. Critics question the inerrableness of historical documents, suggesting that context and interpretation play crucial roles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inerrableness>