

INEXCUSABLENESS

Meaning: Inexcusableness refers to the quality of being impossible to justify or excuse, often due to the severity or unacceptability of one's actions or mistakes.

1. The inexcusableness of his actions left everyone in shock and disbelief.
2. In her eyes, the inexcusableness of the mistake was evident, and she struggled to find a way to justify it.
3. Their inexcusableness in ignoring the warnings ultimately led to the disaster that followed.
4. He faced the consequences of his inexcusableness with a heavy heart, knowing he could have acted differently.
5. The team recognized the inexcusableness of their late arrival and vowed to improve their punctuality in the future.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inexcusableness>