

INEXCUSABLY

Meaning: Inexcusably: in a manner that is impossible to justify or excuse; unforgivably.

1. She inexcusably neglected her responsibilities, leading to disastrous consequences.
2. His behavior at the meeting was inexcusable, leaving everyone shocked and disappointed.
3. Inexcusable delays in communication can damage our reputation with clients.
4. The team's inexcusable mistakes during the project resulted in a significant financial loss.
5. It is inexcusable to ignore the needs of those who rely on your support.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inexcusably>