

INEXTRICABLE

Meaning: INEXTRICABLE: impossible to separate or disentangle; closely linked or intertwined in a way that cannot be undone.

1. The relationship between the two characters became an inextricable part of the story's emotional depth.
2. His past was an inextricable web of choices that he could never fully escape.
3. The scientist argued that the environment and economy are inextricable, influencing one another constantly.
4. As she delved deeper into her research, she discovered an inextricable link between genetics and behavior.
5. Their destinies seemed inextricably intertwined, as fate brought them together time and again.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inextricable>