

INFALLIBILIST

Meaning: An infallibilist is a person who holds the belief that certain knowledge or truths are absolutely certain and cannot be wrong or doubted.

1. An infallibilist believes that certain truths are immune to error or doubt.
2. In discussions about epistemology, the infallibilist's stance often sparks considerable debate.
3. The philosopher's infallibilist perspective led him to reject any form of skepticism.
4. Many infallibilists argue that knowledge requires absolute certainty in its foundations.
5. Critics of the infallibilist approach suggest that it overlooks the complexities of human understanding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/infallibilist>