

INFALLIBILITY

Meaning: Infallibility refers to the quality of being incapable of making mistakes or being wrong, often used in the context of authoritative declarations or beliefs.

1. The doctrine of papal infallibility is often a topic of debate among theologians.
2. Many scholars question the infallibility of historical accounts written by biased authors.
3. Infallibility is a concept that can lead to dangerous absolutes in governance and ideology.
4. The scientist's confidence in his results bordered on infallibility, despite the need for further testing.
5. Her unwavering belief in her own infallibility made it difficult for her to accept feedback.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/infallibility>