

INFALLIBLE

Meaning: Infallible means incapable of making mistakes or being wrong; always dependable or reliable.

1. The scientist believed in the infallible nature of his experiments, convinced they would yield the same results every time.
2. Her infallible instincts guided her to make the right decision in the heat of the moment.
3. Although the coach claimed to have an infallible strategy, the team still faced unexpected challenges on the field.
4. Many followers viewed the ancient text as infallible, trusting its teachings without question.
5. Despite his confidence, no one can truly be infallible when it comes to matters of the heart.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/infallible>