

INFALLIBLENES

Meaning: Infallibleness refers to the quality of being incapable of making mistakes or being wrong, often associated with authority or certainty in judgment.

1. The infallibleness of her judgment made her the go-to advisor in the organization.
2. In discussions about faith, the concept of infallibleness often leads to heated debates among theologians.
3. The infallibleness attributed to the ancient texts was challenged by modern interpretations of history.
4. Despite his claims of infallibleness, even the expert made mistakes in his calculations.
5. The infallibleness of scientific theories is continually tested by new discoveries and evidence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/infallibleness>