

INFAMIZE

Meaning: To infamize means to make someone infamous or to tarnish their reputation by associating them with disgraceful actions or characteristics.

1. The scandal served to infamize the once-respected politician in the eyes of the public.
2. In an effort to infamize their rival, the campaign resorted to spreading false rumors.
3. The media's portrayal was designed to infamize the celebrity, overshadowing their achievements.
4. She feared that the accusations would infamize her family's name for generations.
5. Historically, societies have attempted to infamize those who challenge the status quo.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/infamize>