

INFATUATED

Meaning: Infatuated means having an intense but short-lived passion or admiration for someone or something.

1. She was infatuated with the idea of traveling the world, dreaming of new adventures.
2. After their first date, he realized he was completely infatuated with her infectious laughter.
3. Despite knowing it might not last, she couldn't help but feel infatuated during those summer days.
4. His infatuated gaze lingered on her as she spoke, captivated by her every word.
5. It was clear to everyone around them that he was infatuated, often lost in thoughts of her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/infatuated>