

INFECTIOUS

Meaning: Infectious: capable of being transmitted to others, either in the context of a disease spreading easily or in the sense of inspiring or influencing others positively.

1. The doctor explained that the flu is highly infectious and can spread rapidly in crowded places.
2. Her enthusiasm for the project was infectious, motivating everyone on the team to contribute their best work.
3. Researchers are studying how infectious diseases can evolve and adapt to resist treatment.
4. Infectious laughter filled the room, making it nearly impossible for anyone to stay serious.
5. The rise of infectious diseases in urban areas poses a significant public health challenge.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/infectious>