

INFIDEL

Meaning: Infidel: a person who does not believe in a particular religion or who adheres to a faith considered by others to be false or unorthodox.

1. The ancient texts often referred to those outside the faith as infidels.
2. In the heat of debate, he called his opponent an infidel, highlighting their differing beliefs.
3. Throughout history, rulers have sometimes waged wars against those they labeled as infidels.
4. The concept of infidels has been used to justify both conflict and solidarity among believers.
5. She faced discrimination for her views, being labeled an infidel by those who disagreed with her.
6. The term 'infidel' has often been used to describe someone who does not adhere to a particular faith.
7. In historical contexts, many battles were fought under the banner of defending the faith against perceived infidels.
8. She felt uncomfortable using the word 'infidel' in modern discussions about religion.
9. The novel explores the theme of tolerance, challenging the notion of labeling others as infidels.
10. Throughout history, infidels have been both vilified and romanticized in various cultural narratives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/infidel>