

INFLAMMABLENESS

Meaning: Inflammableness refers to the quality or characteristic of being easily ignited or capable of catching fire.

1. The inflammableness of certain materials necessitates careful handling during storage.
2. Understanding the inflammableness of household items can prevent severe accidents.
3. The laboratory conducted tests to measure the inflammableness of various chemical compounds.
4. Regulations often require clear labeling of products with high inflammableness to ensure public safety.
5. Educating workers about the inflammableness of substances is crucial in chemical industries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inflammableness>