

INFLUENT

Meaning: Influent is a body of water, such as streams or rivers, that flow into a larger body of water.

1. The influent stream shimmered under the morning sun as it flowed through the valley.
2. Many influential leaders have risen to prominence during times of crisis.
3. The scientist's groundbreaking research had a highly influent impact on environmental policies.
4. Her influent speech inspired a generation of activists to take action for climate change.
5. In the world of fashion, social media has become an influent platform for emerging designers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/influent>