

INFORM

Meaning: To inform means to give someone information or to notify them about something.

1. Please inform me about any changes to the schedule as soon as possible.
2. The teacher will inform the students of their final grades next week.
3. It is essential to inform your supervisor of any issues you encounter during the project.
4. The company sent out an email to inform customers about the new product launch.
5. We need to inform the public about the upcoming safety regulations before they take effect.
6. Please inform me about any changes to the schedule.
7. The teacher will inform the students of their grades tomorrow.
8. It's important to inform the team of your progress on the project.
9. She took a moment to inform her friend about the news.
10. The manager will inform all employees about the new policy.
11. Please inform me of any changes to the schedule.
12. The teacher used various methods to inform students about the upcoming exam.
13. I will inform you as soon as I receive any updates from the management.
14. It's important to inform the authorities if you notice any suspicious activity.
15. She decided to inform her friends about the surprise party in advance.
16. Please inform me about the latest updates on the project.
17. The teacher made sure to inform her students of the upcoming exam dates.
18. It is crucial to inform the authorities if you notice any suspicious activity.
19. Before making a decision, I need you to inform me of all the relevant details.
20. We will inform the community about the changes to the local park's opening hours.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inform>