

INFORMATION

Meaning: Information is data or knowledge that is gathered, processed, and used to inform or support understanding of a subject.

1. The researcher gathered extensive information to support her hypothesis.
2. He was surprised by the amount of information available online about the topic.
3. Accurate information is essential for making informed decisions.
4. The company promised to keep customers updated with relevant information.
5. She relied on trusted sources to verify the information before sharing it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/information>