

INFUSIVE

Meaning: Infusive: characterized by the ability to blend or impart flavors, qualities, or elements into a mixture or narrative.

1. The chef's infusive technique brought out the rich flavors of the herbs in the dish.
2. She preferred an infusive approach to storytelling, weaving in cultural elements seamlessly.
3. The artist's infusive style blended traditional methods with modern influences.
4. His infusive enthusiasm for the project inspired his team to work harder.
5. The tea was prepared using an infusive process, allowing the leaves to steep for several minutes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/infusive>