

INGULFMENT

Meaning: Ingulfment refers to the act of being engulfed or submerged, especially by water, resulting in overwhelming or complete coverage.

1. The ingulfment of the ocean during the storm swallowed the coastline in mere minutes.
2. Many feared the ingulfment of the city by advancing floodwaters would lead to catastrophic losses.
3. As the ingulfment of the dark forest loomed ahead, the hikers felt a chill of apprehension.
4. The ingulfment of new ideas in the conference sparked invigorating discussions among the participants.
5. Her passion for environmental issues led to the ingulfment of her thoughts with innovative solutions for sustainability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ingulfment>