

INHABILITY

Meaning: Inhability refers to the lack of ability or capacity to perform a particular action or function.

1. Her inhability to adapt to new environments made it difficult for her to succeed in her career.
2. The athlete's inhability to recover from injury was a significant setback for the team.
3. Inhability to communicate effectively can lead to misunderstandings in both personal and professional relationships.
4. Despite his intelligence, his inhability to focus on the task at hand hindered his academic performance.
5. The study highlighted the inhability of certain individuals to process information under stress.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/inhability>